Powering transformative camps for children with serious illnesses, disabilities, and other life challenges

Camp Twin Lakes is celebrating its 25th year as the leading network of recreational, therapeutic, and educational camps in Georgia. We have served over 130,000 children in those 25 years, investing deeply in each camper through fully adaptive and medically supported camp programs. In 2016, we finished improvements at our campsites, added additional hands-on nature programming, initiated new strategic planning, and provided the full camp experience at no cost to more than 70% of our campers. As we continue to celebrate our successes, we are ever grateful for the support and generosity of our faithful donors and volunteers. The friendships, teamwork, and confidence our campers build carry into their non-camp lives, keeping them active, healthy, and independent. Let’s keep camping!

-Elizabeth Correll Richards, Camp Twin Lakes Board President

As a leader in pediatric healthcare, a camp counselor, and a Spin for Kids participant, I always knew Camp was a special place for children. Within my first year as CEO, it became apparent to me that Camp Twin Lakes provides so much more than a fun week with friends in the summer. I saw parents sigh with relief as they left their children in caring and capable hands, campers reach the top of the rock wall using adaptive equipment, children learn to take responsibility for their health care routine, and teens mentor younger campers through the Leader-In-Training program. Through the intentional nature of our programs, campers are given opportunities for personal growth and independence. Looking forward, we are excited to further collaborate with our partners, volunteers, and generous donors to ensure that even more children with serious illnesses and disabilities experience the transformational impact of Camp.

-Jill Morrisey, Camp Twin Lakes CEO

With your help, Camp Twin Lakes provides year-round, fully-accessible, intentionally designed camp programs that teach campers to overcome obstacles while creating shared experiences with other children who face similar challenges.

After spending every other day of the year adapting to the world around them, for one week, camp adapts to them.

Creating Lasting Impact

Play is the root of learning. For the children we serve at Camp Twin Lakes, play is also the origin of things like courage, self-determination, and healing.

Thanks to the generosity of our donors, Camp Twin Lakes provides the chance to be part of transformative summer camp adventures for kids who are not able to attend typical camp. Our programs intentionally focus on growing each child’s capabilities. We foster an environment of creative freedom, fun, and discovery that teach our campers to overcome misconceptions about what they think they are capable of accomplishing and they return home with a new sense of confidence and independence.

Because of you...

Our programs have a lasting effect on our campers. Camper survey results continue to exceed American Camp Association standards.

- 85% of campers reported that their friendship skills improved because of Camp
- 84% reported personal growth in teamwork
- 79% of campers reported an increase in affinity for nature and the environment
- Over half of our campers come from urban/suburban areas with limited access to nature, but at Camp, all campers are involved in recycling, composting, and other environmental programs
- Over 80% of campers reported a higher sense of independence and responsibility because of Camp

- Zero-Entry Pool allows campers with limited mobility the opportunity to either transfer into a water wheelchair and roll into the water, or use the slight decline and railing for those who wish to enter the pool and just need some extra stability
- Rescue Hauler helps campers with limited mobility climb the rock wall, swing on the giant swing, and take flight down the zip line
- Wheelchair Mounting Ramp allows campers with limited mobility or other health restrictions to experience the benefits of equine therapy

A lot of my friends in my cabin have Cerebral Palsy, just like me, and I don’t get that anywhere else. Sometimes it feels like no one understands what it’s like to be me outside of Camp, but getting to know other campers with CP gives me the confidence to explain myself and has helped me come out of depression. I love to be independent, and that’s something that’s really encouraged at Camp Twin Lakes. Because my camp counselors were there to help and encourage me to walk up the steps to go down the slide into the pool, I’m now able to climb the steps at my neighborhood pool and go down the slide there, too.”

Stephanie was diagnosed with Wilms Tumor at 18 months old and at 5, she began attending several summer and weekend camps for children diagnosed with cancer. From then on, camp was the highlight of her year. When she graduated from camp at age 18, she couldn’t fathom the idea of no longer being a part of it, so she knew she had to continue her camp journey as a Counselor in Training. During this time, she experienced major personal growth and found joy in giving back by mentoring and helping other campers experience their own camp journey.

Stephanie went on to work on Camp Twin Lakes’ summer program staff for 2 years where she learned how to be flexible and adapt to the needs of others. She was intrigued by the different diagnoses and treatments she witnessed at camp, but most of all, she was inspired by campers’ determination, independence, and hope.

During her medical residency, Stephanie came back to camp and served as a cabin counselor, and this is when her camp experience came full circle. As a counselor, she saw camp through a new lens. Her personal experience as a cancer survivor, camper, and camp counselor shaped who she is today and inspired her to become a pediatrician.

“Being able to come to a place where I know I fit in and having kids who were diagnosed with similar disabilities that I was able to talk to and have fun with, you just don’t get that the other 51 weeks of the year. That really led to my confidence and independence as I got older. So when campers see me back volunteering and I’m able to tell them ‘oh hey, you can go to college on a basketball scholarship’ it pushes them to go out there and try new things and just be independent.”

“I’ve been attending Camp Weekaneatit at Camp Twin Lakes for 5 years. It was my first overnight camp, so I was extremely nervous to come to Camp, but I’m glad I built up the courage because it truly changed my life. I look forward to this one week throughout the whole year because it taught me to cope with having celiac disease and created a year-long support system for me and the other campers. Camp has helped me become a better leader because I’m able to give younger kids advice, help them try new things, and enjoy their time at camp. There are 5 words we focus on every year at camp: respect, determination, courage, inspiration, and equality. Learning these qualities from Camp have helped me become a better person.”

For the first summer ever, we hosted Camp Trach-Me-Away for children who require the support of a ventilator to aid in their breathing.

The most popular new addition to the Camp family? Baby goats! Campers loved doing yoga with the goats.

New paved paths provide easier access to the treehouse.

Fans added to the riding arena allow us to have sessions all day and keeps the horses cool and safe, no matter what time of day.

This year, we added more weekend programs including Marfan Family Camp, Macon ARC, and No Limitations Family Camp.

For the first time, we are including horseback in weekend programs (it’s been a huge hit!)

We’ve also made great strides in increasing our outpost camping programs at Tri-Mountain to include groups like NoLimitations and Camp Journey.

This summer, we hosted six weeks of camp programs for children with Celiac disease, physical disabilities, siblings separated in the foster care system, children with a parent serving in the military, and children with autism.

We also added a Gaga court (similar to dodgeball), a new lakefront sand beach, made improvements to the bike, boat, and sports sheds and the amphitheatre, and overhauled our fleet of 24 bicycles.

Through Camp-To-Go, Camp Twin Lakes reaches even more children and brings joy to families during their stay in the hospital. Camp-To-Go designs camp programs to match patients’ abilities while helping them reach goals set by the clinical team.

This experience brings families and children on the hospital floor together so that they can connect over fun activities. If one patient makes a friend during our time together, we were successful.

At all three locations, campers were encouraged to find their voice & share their stories as opportunities for empowerment!
Our hands-on farm programming gives our campers meaningful, educational, and therapeutic experiences themed around food and gardening, aimed at improving the quality of life for the children and families we serve. Good nutrition won’t cure the challenges our campers face, but we do believe that healthy eating has a positive impact on the well-being of each camper.

Nutrition, environmental stewardship, sustainability.

Volunteerism: that moment you forget you’re volunteering to help change lives, because it’s changing yours

Thank you for your dedication to keeping camp magical!

This year, we celebrated 25 years of Camp with an Anniversary Gala at the Georgia Aquarium in honor of our founder, Doug Hertz, as well as past and present Board Presidents Jay Smith, Comer Yates, Bonnie Harris, Lawrence Kenny, and Elizabeth Richards. With the help of our sponsors and over 600 guests, we raised nearly $800,000 to fund the new lakefront programming building at Camp Twin Lakes Will-A-Way, which will be ready for campers by Summer 2018!

Our transformative camp programs are made possible by the generous support of our treasured community. Because of your participation in our fundraising events, our extraordinary campers are able to see beyond the limitations of their situation and learn to turn challenges into triumphs.

"I’VE BEEN A CAMPER AT CAMP TWIN LAKES FOR 6 YEARS AND THIS YEAR, I’m A LEADER-IN-TRAINING. I CAN’T BEGIN TO TELL YOU HOW MUCH YOUR DONATION MEANS TO ME. WITHOUT PEOPLE LIKE YOU, THERE WOULDN’T BE A CAMP FOR ME TO GO TO. IT IS TRULY THE BEST PLACE IN THE WORLD."
